Capital Day girls win independent tourney

Special to the State Journal

LOUISVILLE — For the second straight year, the Capital Day School's 6th, 7th and 8th grade girls basketball team won the Louisville Independent School Invitational Tournament here.

Capital Day won two games Saturday for the championship. In the first contest, Capital Day defeated St. Francis, 37-8.

Capital Day jumped out to an 8-0 lead after one quarter of play and led, 19-2, at halftime.

Continuing to play the entire squad throughout the second half, Capital Day increased its lead after three quarters to 31-6 and then the final score.

Six players scored for Capital Day. Ryan Waterfield led the way with 17 points, 13 in the first half. Others scoring were Rachel Duvall with eight; Tiffany Fields and Stephanie Wise, with four points apiece and Lizzie Lange with two points. Kaylyn Ashley also had two points.

Laura Perry led the team with five rebounds.

In the championship game, Capital Day defeated Collegiate, 36-18.

Capital Day took an 11-0 first quarter lead and maintained its advantage at halftime, 23-6 and at the end of the third quarter, 31-10.

Rachel Duvall scored eight points while Ryan Waterfield scored 20 for her team. Tiffany Fields had six points and Elly Carroll scored two points.

Duvall and Waterfield were voted to the all-tournament team.

Capital Day is now 20-5 and will conclude its season this Saturday in the Central Kentucky Girls League against Lexington Mary Queen at 1:45 p.m. in the Good Shepherd Gvm.
